

The Charleston Collection

Timeless beauty with modern sophistication.

The ageless antique allure of heirloom floors has been lovingly reborn with the Charleston Collection. Much like the elegant city for which it is named, the Charleston Collection perfectly balances timeless beauty with modern sophistication. Artisans begin a meticulous process by hand-selecting fine French Oak, milled into precise planks of eight inches wide and six feet in length. Each plank is lightly wire brushed with its edges and ends carefully hand carved. An unprecedented fuming technique is used to age the natural Oak grain and lock in the signature colors that perfectly capture the beauty of the Lowcountry.
